MOM'S TAKE $32.05
Huzah, huzah. It finally made myself 20 whole cents. Klutsko came in in second spot yesterday and paid a whopping two cents. However, today I see a device to place on Durian, followed tomorrow with another place bet on Party Time.

POP'S STAKE $27.75
Another day and another two cents. I'm getting close to even to go right. Just about any time now I'm going to give up this thing and go to the hatpin method. At least it's more fun that way. However, I'll make another try today and see how I turn out. Tomorrow I will win on the hatpin. I'll be happy to win for another day.

World-Famous Speedboat Tuned For Latest Trials

LONDON, June 20.—(UPI)—The world's fastest speedboat, the 2,400 horsepower "Bluebird" of the late Sir Malcolm Campbell, is being tuned up this week for a new crack at its own record.

The boat in which Sir Malcolm fished over Lake Conistota, at 141 miles per hour, is equipped with a new engine installed by his son, Donald Campbell, and a crew of mechanics.

The blue and silver boat has been polished to a mirror's smoothness. The 11-year-old hull has been specially strengthened inside.

Donald, 25, has gone over every inch of the boat and said for 20 years-old Royce engine "never was fitter."

"Somebody will certainly beat my father's record this year—and I want the record to stay on this side of the Atlantic," he said while working in his boat-garage a few miles outside London.

Campbell said he hoped to make his first trial run Saturday on Lake Conistota. Last year he was well on his way to a new world record when the gearbox gave out.

On his first run down the measured mile, he pushed the "Bluebird" to an unofficial 150 mph.

He said the one-time Pennsylvania player is an outstanding defensive player and a superb leader. He said he was a "bluebird" in the game.

Accident Occurs During Lunch Hour

An Allendale School student was killed at noon today while cycling home for lunch.

Ralph Haig, aged 9, of 5307-109 Street, was killed when his bicycle was struck by a gravel truck on 109 Street near 60 Avenue.

A second boy cycling with Haig escaped the collision. The name of the second boy was not ascertained.

Haig was a grade three student at Allendale school.

The boy was struck after taking a short cut from 61 Avenue diagonally south to 60 Avenue, coming out on 109 Street, said in the process of crossing a private garage driveway.

TRUCK APPLIES BRAKES
J. H. Mitchell, 6841-46 Avenue, owner of the garage, said he saw the truck on the street and also the two boys come "shooting out of the driveway."

He said he saw the truck brakes were applied but the driver's actual collision because the garage obscured his view.

After stopping a short time and again from cycling there, he said.

City police investigations were carried out by Constables Doug Allen and Alex Farquharson. Smith's ambulance answered the call.

Two hundred volunteers, adults and 40 dump trucks were throwing "half the mountain" into the collapsed part to bolster the dikes. Arlen Kihue flood control at Bonanza's Mill in the Fraser Valley today said the 100 people will be gone if the water comes back. Part of it has collapsed and the rest is like jelly.

Edmontonians sweated again as the weatherman predicted "more of the same" for today and tomorrow.

He promised a high of 86 for this afternoon, with only a possibility of scattered thunderstorms to cool the city evening.

Spruit weather continues tomorrow as the mass of warm air, flooding the area from the shore of the Arctic right to the Atlantic, pushes the weather into the 80s.

The mercury topped 87 degrees at the hot spot of Medicine Hat in the southern part of the province and climbed just as high in Dawson City where the Yukon, Edmonton's 85-high was shared by Whitehorse in the Yukon.

The Yukon, which recorded North America's all-time low of below zero on Feb. 2, 1947, was 80 above yesterday.

HAYFORD, Sask., June 20.—(UPI)—Five business buildings were razed early yesterday by a four-hour blaze which raged down the main street of this village to miles southwest of Prince Albert.

Damage has been estimated as high as $250,000. An explosion in a grocery store is believed the cause of the early morning inferno.

About 500 persons from Hayford and nearby villages battled the fierce flames as they leaped from building to building along the main section of the town.

Destroyed were Hanchak's general store, where the fire is believed to have started, Empire, Cash, Mack hardware, Sambar's confectionery, the bus depot, jewelry shop and the post office.

Lacombe Opener Won By Stettler

Record Crowds Expected For First Annual Tourney

Special to The Bulletin
LACOMBE, June 20.—Lloyd Bradley, formerly of the Big Four's Calgary Riders, pitched Stettler to a 12-4 win in the first annual Lacombe baseball tournament yesterday.

Lacombe pitcher Bob Coughlin showed well in the first morning game as he held Alliance to nine scattered hits to pitch him to a 12-4 victory.

He lost a shutout with two out in the seventh inning when Alliance's catcher, Tommy Hamilton, hit a three-bagger to score Jack Mackenzie. Fourth inning home run right field fence went to Lacombe third baseman Dick LaFleur.

Errors responsible for the down fall of the Alliance also occurred in the second inning when they garnered three errors, which helped Lacombe reap their cluster of four runs that evening.

TWO-UP HOMER
Harold Dave Martin of Red Deer is formerly of the Edmonton Junior Baseball League. Stettler's Al Chapman scored a two-run homer in the third inning over the right field fence to lead the team to a never-lost 3-2 lead. Next inning the Stettler crew got nine runs on four bases on balls and three errors.

With perfect baseball weather in hand, the driver of the east-bound street-car on Jasper just after midnight and saw an auto coming towards it. He suddenly swerved into the safety zone but he couldn't avoid it, he said, because the street-car was approaching the intersection at the same time.

POLICE HAVE CLUES
The impact threw her into the path of the street-car just after it had crossed the intersection. She proceeded another quarter-block, according to witnesses, stopped and came back to find the woman returned to his car and drove off without doing anything for her. Police are investigating several clues which have cropped up during their city-wide search. All police are on the lookout for the car, a grey 1936 or 1937 model, and the driver, a woman, who is described as being about 30 years of age and of medium build.

Special detection of traffic police has been assigned to the case and the detective office has been called in. RCMP have also been notified.

Jo Jo Stalin Puts in Word For Freedom of Criticism

of hundreds of generations." Stalin wrote.

He said a group of youthful communists asked him for general guidance on how to give his own views on the present situation in the world.

"I am not a philosopher," Stalin replied, "and of course I cannot give you a direct answer to that. Therefore I have written this pamphlet."

He wrote that classes and nations are developing their own dialects, but insisted that it does not follow from that that language is a whole being.

Stalin agreed that Pravda did not have to open its pages to discussion. Defending the right of public debate, he said:

"It is a common established that no science can develop and anything without conflict of opinion," without freedom of criticism."

He wrote that classes and nations are developing their own dialects, but insisted that it does not follow from that that language is a whole being.

DAY BY DAY Thief Makes Large Haul From Booth

A phone booth thief struck it rich yesterday.

Ivan English, 3946-107 street, reported to police that his wallet with $100 in cash in it had been stolen from the Corona Hotel phone booth where he left it yesterday at 11:15 a.m.

He said he returned shortly after to the phone booth and found the wallet missing. He said it also contained an endorsed cheque for $80.

Attended fire in Caledon yesterday at 1:45 p.m. caused an estimated $300 damage to the house of John Jones, 3201-127 street.

Jones told police the fire started just over the kitchen stove where a radiator leaks into the attic. It spread through the attic and caused to the roof. Damage was spread to the attic and water damage to the interior.

With the help of some passing soldiers, Jones carried most of the furniture from his house.

Three trucks from number five and eight stations under the chief Harry She answered the call.

Edmonton Trades and Labor Council started its summer holidays following last night's meeting.

Next meeting of the council is scheduled for Sept. 8, unless a special meeting is necessary during the summer.

Council wound up its current business last night by electing president Tom Steele and secretary Herbert Turner delegates to the Trades and Labor Congress convention in Montreal.

Widely-known for his instrumental and vocal compositions and arrangements, Salvation Army inspector Percy Merritt, Toronto, is an Edmonton visitor.

His visit is part of Salvation Army plan to raise its musical standards.

Where bands are in close proximity to each other there are consequent higher standards. As a result of friendly competition, bands are deprived of life.

In Edmonton the band inspector will conduct special practices with the Citadel band for two days.

You can't burn the candle at both ends as far as the unemployment insurance committee are concerned.

Or, as put it another way: You can't have your unemployment cake and eat off a paycheck too.

Yesterday Wilfred Deaconson of Camrose was fined $15 and costs for claiming four days unemployment insurance in January and February last year.

The Camrose man made restitution of the $22.20 he unlawfully obtained. He appeared before magistrate H. H. Hume at Camrose.

Five similar cases are looked to appear in police court in Edmonton.

Farmers' Union of Alberta food relief fund for Manitoba farmers has topped the $5,000 mark—and is expected to grow.

A release from the Union's head office today said that FUA and FWUA locals throughout the province are in full force behind the drive.

Highlight of a week's campaigning was $10,000 contribution from the province where, members of the Badger Lake FUA, local 1201, conducted a canvass.

Holiday Aim For Farmers Of Province

"They're going gay down on the farm tomorrow."

The rumble of the tractor will be silenced as the farmers, together with his wife, family and friends, join some 10,000 other Alberta farmers in celebrating their unofficial holiday.

Sports rallies, ball games and picnics are just a few of the other entertainments planned for tomorrow.

Well over 100 such events will be organized by the Farmers' Union of Alberta throughout the province.

KAMLOOPS, B.C. — It seemed that every other man in Kamloops was wearing a cowboy hat and, I reckon, as how I sort 'o got to lookin' jealous-like, because my wife said, "You want one, don't you?"

"What's he want?" Judy wanted to know.

"Your daddy wants to look like a big, bad cowboy," my mother said. It seemed to me there was just a touch of derision in her sweet voice.

JACK SCOTT in her sweet voice.

She was right, of course. Show me a man who doesn't secretly want a 30-gallon sombrero on his dome and I'll show you a dead fish. Bill, I made some lame excuse about needing a wide-brimmed hat for driving and that seemed to satisfy her. No grown man likes to confess that he wants to play Hopalong Cassidy.

NOT BY GALLONS

The deal was clinched when we discovered that Kamloops has a branch of one of the west's best saddle makers and cowboy outfitters, Riley and McCormick, and so, family in tow like a bunch of little dogs, I swaggered into the shop. It was only the first time in my life I felt glad I naturally a little on the bow-legged side.

Turned out that Mike McCormick, the son of Kenas, the founder of the firm, was on hand to help me wearing a pair of pants so tight they looked as if they were painted on.

"Oh," I said, "something conservative. Five or six gallons?"

"They only come in gallons in the movies," Mike said pleasantly. "But I think we can fix you up."

Gas Export Hearings Get Underway Today

The Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board opened hearings at the court house today on an application to export natural gas at a short distance across the boundary to Dawson Creek, B.C.

The West Coast Transmission Company seeks permission to construct a 15-mile pipeline of standard 18-inch pipe from the Peace Coulee field in Alberta to supply natural gas to the town of Dawson Creek, B.C.

The board consisted of J. N. McKinnon, deputy minister of lands and mines, Dr. G. W. Gower, Edmonton, and D. P. Goodall, Calgary, as the senior counsel, heard technical evidence on the potential gas supply from the northern field.

FROM THREE WELLS

The board, also, geologist, told the board the gas to be exported would be taken from three wells with a calculated open flow per day of more than 61 million cubic feet.

Requirements of Dawson Creek even on the coldest day would not be more than three million cubic feet, he said.

Thirteen wells have been drilled in that area, eight in B.C. and five in Alberta out of that number five are producing.

30-AYER PERMIT

Though the company is asking for a 30-ayer permit the gas from the wells could last for 300 years if the requirements were not greatly increased. Dr. Naus said in reply to a question from C. E. Smith, Calgary, counsel for the board.

Estimated recoverable gas reserves from the field were said to be in excess of 100 billion cubic feet.

Figures in the report show the cowboy. Now, get out of that maverick. Patience and let's get out lower before the sheriff catches up with you."

I bowed as gracefully as I could to the request of the unromantic woman, but I left a little bit of my heart in Riley and McCormick, the little bit that every man is saving for the day when he'll saddle Old Paint and ride off into the setting sun, his cowboy by his side and a singing cowboy by his side.

"Stop admiring yourself," my wife said, "and we'll go to Woolworth's and buy you a cap pistol."

"I was wondering if..."

"A skirt?" Mike asked reading my mind. "I have just the thing to go with that outfit." I looked at him narrowly, but he was keeping a straight face.

BUT NO DICE

The skirt turned out to be a soft buckskin number with some strenuous fancy fringes. When I had hauled it down to meet the eye of the chaps and clucked it with a hand towel leather belt it gave me a peculiar, short-legged appearance, probably explaining why so many cowboys look tall in the saddle.

Mr. wife had now joined in the sport. "Here you are, my fugitive from a mule trail," she cooed and snatched a bright red bandana about my neck. Mike stuck a lariat in my hand and led me over to a large alabaster horse used in the show as a display for saddles and harnesses.

"Hold him there a minute," my wife instructed. She whipped out the camera and clicked the shutter. We'll call this one the make-believe horse and the make-believe cowboy.

Secrecy Charged On New Brewery

Proposed Red Deer Plant Unnecessary, Say Unionists

Establishment of new "$1,000,000" brewery in Alberta, "probably" in Red Deer will be "unilaterally" opposed by the Alberta Federation of Labor and the Trades and Labor Councils of the province.

Names of the persons promoting the enterprise were not disclosed.

In a report made before the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council last night labor leaders charged that "financial interests" had been negotiating "with a marked lack of publicity" for the past 18 months for permission to establish another brewery in this province.

Now, they said, the operators had been given the green light by the provincial government after having secured the necessary permit from the federal government two months ago.

The reporting committee said that the Alberta Federation of Labor first became aware of the plans when the federal government gave its blessing to the enterprise.

NOW PART TIME

The labor men said they were opposed to establishment of another brewery because present plants are working at only two-thirds capacity.

Operation of another plant would mean brewery workers would be put down still further from their present average of "four days work a week," it was claimed.

Herbert Turner, secretary of the Alberta Federation of Labor and the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council, said a letter had been sent to Premier Manning on behalf of brewery workers protesting establishment of a new plant.

He said the premier had replied with the information that it would be "impossible" to accede to the union's request.

A resolution was passed at the meeting last night to petition the provincial government to hear brewery workers protesting establishment of the brewery enterprise.

SECRECY CHARGED

Charges were made that unusual secrecy had surrounded the negotiations for permission to build the new brewery.

"If it was a new refinery or other plant," he said, "it would be different."

Others present who will be called by D. P. MacDonald K.C. counsel for the pipeline company are I. McLaughlin, M.L.A. for Grande Prairie, representing Hylton, Brown, Lodge, Wemyley and Grande Prairie, and J. O. Patterson chairman of the Grande Prairie Chamber of Commerce.

Better Health Service

Life's Darkest Moment

By Webster

San Ross

Uniform Tax Rate Brings Injustices

If a first class health service is going to cost the city more money than it is saving at present, as Dr. G. M. Little suggests, that money will have to be forthcoming because public health is the first asset of any community.

New settlers and new industries consult the health standards of a city before they move into it.

Individuals do not wish to bring their children into a district where the public health service is not of the best.

Industrialists do not wish to incur the costs of absenteeism through low health standards and a poor standard in this regard is inimical to the establishment of new industries.

Edmonton's general health rate is good. Deaths from cancer and heart disease have diminished in number over the past few years.

Communicable disease has been held to a minimum. Over the past year there have been only three cases of whooping cough and 28 of poliomyelitis.

The general death rate of seven per 1,000 of population is the lowest since 1939.

But what the medical health officer points out is that the health service and the machinery for operating it and the money to support it have not increased since the city had 50,000 fewer people.

Edmonton's health service, in brief, is in exactly the same situation as the police department is in and as the fire department is in and as the Northern Hardware building fire revealed its fatal weakness.

And just as the police department has been lucky in that an outbreak of crime has not taxed its inadequate resources, so has the health board been lucky in that no outbreak of disease has occurred to emphasize the slowness in which it has been starved for funds.

Edmonton badly needs a decentralization of its health services. It needs an amalgamation of the services which, to use Dr. Little's phrase, are pieced piecemeal by the city and the school boards.

Edmonton's health service needs entire reorganization.

Dr. Little should be given the money and the authority to go ahead and do it.

SO YOU'RE A JUNIOR PRIVATE EYE, HUH? AN' YA GOTTA MAGIC BELT THAT GLOWS IN TH' DARK, HUH?
BOX TOPS, HUH? SAY, HOW MANY

I BET THEY GIVE YA TH' SECRET CODE TOO.
HA! HA! HA!

THE SCOFFER

Why Must They Be Told?

If conditions in the neighborhood of a certain dance hall on the south side are as appalling as residents of that district say they are, why should the police have to wait for instructions from the city council's bylaws committee to take action?

According to the complaints of the residents there is no reason to doubt the good faith and sincerity in which they are made, drunkenness, the accosting of women and children are common in this area.

Citizens say they protest to the police and a few arrests are made. But the objectionable behavior continues.

And when these indignant citizens bring this matter to the attention of the bylaws committee, with a petition, the bylaws committee has to instruct the police to put enough officers on the job to clean the nuisance up.

Why should respectable citizens have ## to put up with this sort of thing at all?

Why should they have to protest to the bylaws committee?

Why should the bylaws committee have to instruct the commissioners?

And why should the commissioners have to tell the police to go out and do a job of keeping the peace which should be no more than routine?

It comes back to the fact, emphasized by The Edmonton Bulletin time and time again, that even routine protection cannot be extended to householders when the numerical strength of the police force is insufficient.

It is not good enough when routine protection in matters of this kind must take the form of a special request.

When a police department has to be told how to do its work, it's time to think about changing that department up to the point of adequacy.

Letters to the Editor

Americans

Editor, Bulletin.—Why is it that so many people here delight in insulting the American people that come here?

First of all we do not want Canada. Your own people have not got faith in Canada or they would have done what our American have done in the oil fields here.

We have all these things so we are sure that they blow out of their young minds, and then become an irreparable belief that the "different" ones are inferior. This is the thing that breeds war. Wars are conceived by men, but they too, were once children.

Squeeze It

Editor, Bulletin.—One of our correspondents (other day) wished to know how he could get his piano to play a tune like "Musi, Musi, Music."

How would he like to "Squeeze It, Squeeze It, Squeeze It?"

Another very vital question I would like to be answered is: How can we get lines in Edmonton to smell like lilacs?

One might just as well smell at a pint of pure, cold water and I do know there is nothing wrong with my smelling.

Western Advantage

Editor, Bulletin.—I came across these words in a recent issue of the Christian Science Monitor and I would like to pass them on to your readers:

The moral and practical advantages of righteousness and freedom are on the western nations' side. But advantages don't count unless they are used. Let us use them, let us develop them.

Smiles

The Victory procession had just passed, and out of the cheering crowd a small girl emerged with a fearful little girl clinging to her sleeve. Becoming aware of the situation, the girl turned sharply on him.

"Be quiet! You're never satisfied," she snapped. "You've been kicked by a General's horse, shoved over by a Member of Parliament, walked on by a V.C., and now you're howling! Ungrateful, I call it!"

Editor, Bulletin.—I am certainly in full support of your paper and its articles dealing with the subject of the day. I am like a reliable newspaper article to stir up the people and some of us need a lot more stirring. More power to you.

THE QUESTION.—Do you think that Canada should have a written Bill of Rights?

J. Key, M. Van Durne, D. Podersky, R. Marshall, Mrs. Goodall, W. A. Fraser.

JERRY KEY, 1124-106 avenue, clerk: Yes, I think Canada should have a written Bill of Rights. I like the one in the United States or in England. I would think that it would certainly benefit every citizen. I think it is a great mistake to have a Bill of Rights. There is no need for it in Canada and would entitle everyone to the same rights, no matter what color, creed or national origin they are.

FRANZ, 1455-106 avenue, accountant: I believe in fair play for everyone, black, white, or what have you, as long as they live up to their rights. I think that a Bill of Rights would certainly help improve the assurance of this.

RON MARSHALL, 5517-75 avenue, sales clerk: If I had a Bill of Rights I would be in favor of it. I would think that it would certainly benefit every citizen. I think it is a great mistake to have a Bill of Rights. There is no need for it in Canada and would entitle everyone to the same rights, no matter what color, creed or national origin they are.

MRS. M. GOODALL, 927-106 street, stenographer: I believe in fair play for everyone, black, white, or what have you, as long as they live up to their rights. I think that a Bill of Rights would certainly help improve the assurance of this.

DAN PODERSKY, 106 St. George's Crescent, manager: I think it would be a good idea to have a Bill of Rights. I think that a Bill of Rights would certainly help improve the assurance of this.

MILYARD VAN DURN, 1000-106 street, clerk: Although Canada is a small young country there is no reason why it should not have a Bill of Rights. We do have a free government and it would clear our standard of living if we had one. This would be another good improvement.

He has enacted a principle. He has struck a blow for the freedom of harassed citizens everywhere.

Graves of Soldiers Overseas

The protest of the Montgomery Branch of the Canadian Legion over the failure to mark the graves of Canadian soldiers overseas with the numbers of their units is sound and timely.

To identify these headstones with a name and a corps description creates additional difficulty for relatives trying to locate the resting places of men killed in action.

Upper Chamber Has Its Uses

It is to be hoped that the decision of New Zealand to abolish its upper house in the next parliamentary session will give new notions to the advocates of streamlined reform in this country.

No one will deny that some of the usages and practices of our own upper chamber could do with a bit of modernizing.

But the democratic form of government is predicated upon a bi-cameral parliamentary system and reckless legislative amputation can be as dangerous to a form of government as it can be to a human body.

The senate not only affords a second ## consideration of legislation, but stands as a safeguard against the abuse of the powers of the commons.

It is very easy for an elective chamber to become an aristocracy of intellect which is the most dangerous form of aristocracy known to human history.

It is easy, too, for a federal administration to seize too much authority for itself, as the Canadian cabinet has done upon occasion, when that authority is derived from a single legislative chamber.

New Zealand is taking a very dangerous course. And there is no reason for Canada to seize too avidly upon the precedent.

ODDS AND ENDS

Mayor Heronally Resolves To Pass Up The Pink Seas

A large blushing poppy is hereby awarded to Mayor Sidney Parsons who has had the sense and the courage to inform the public that he'll attend no more poppy teas for three months.

Said the mayor: "I don't think it fair or proper that I should neglect the hundreds of the city to attend social functions."

His worship went a step further. He will not only eschew but fight him himself, he will not attend them either.

We regard this decision as peculiarly laudable in view of the fact that it comes from a man who is so close to the point of view expressed in an editorial in this newspaper a couple of weeks ago.

Somewhat as we recall it, it should be the appointment of a special official to take care of the social obligations for the mayor.

We said, as well as we can recollect, that there is no need for anybody to play social lion in behalf of the city, that it was an imposition to expect the mayor of Edmonton to turn up at every social affair to gratify the social wishes of his sponsors.

Therefore, upon second thoughts, we shall award Mayor Parsons two blushing poppies, one for having the nerve to lay down his ultimatum, and the second for agreeing with the Bulletin.

Carried To Extreme

We are not aware of any other city on this continent where officials are dragged as frequently from their chimney corners to gaudy cocktails and swell tea with the populace.

It is a little bit of course, to occasionally see a mayor or some official, in a tuxedo, bumping head with the common herd and laying a few well-chosen words of wisdom on the line.

But it has got so in Edmonton that almost everybody who calls a meeting or gives a dinner with any semblance of a semi-public flavor expects to see his magisterialness sitting at the right hand of the chairman with his feet on a pile of wise and witty words.

We have heard that it rumored that when a mayor or any other official is making speeches and gorging his unhappy liver with fish and fiddle, right after lunch, he can be neither merry nor brilliant when he slides into his office chair in the morning.

The whole business has been carried to an absurd extreme in Edmonton and Mayor Parsons has been a terrible man for calling a halt to it.

Kissing Babies

There is a rather foolish tradition on this continent that any elected official is bound to kiss babies before his election and afterwards.

So far as the baby kissing is concerned, well, the tradition of that practice depends entirely upon the age of the baby. We certainly would not wish to kiss any candidate's wings too closely to this respect.

But so far as the rabble-mongering is concerned, there is clearly far too much of it.

When the public elects a man, it does not purchase him.

An elected official is a leader, he is not a martinet to be pointed out to anybody that when a mayor or any other official is making speeches and gorging his unhappy liver with fish and fiddle, right after lunch, he can be neither merry nor brilliant when he slides into his office chair in the morning.

The whole business has been carried to an absurd extreme in Edmonton and Mayor Parsons has been a terrible man for calling a halt to it.

Many a worthy civic official on this continent has been hurried into an ultimatum because his constituents have insisted upon an ultimatum that he would have to live up to. Many a worthy civic official on this continent has been hurried into an ultimatum because his constituents have insisted upon an ultimatum that he would have to live up to.

Trivia

In income and excess profits taxes only Canada and the United States paid $100,000,000 in 1949.

In 1948 the savings of Canadians through life insurance savings was more than $500 for every man, woman and child.

Montreal is the second largest French-speaking city in the world.

Spain produces nearly half the world's olive oil.

Equal Taxes, Unequal Service

There are other areas along the North Saskatchewan and the fringes of the city. In those areas lots have been sold and built upon. Those areas are being used in part to operate services that do not serve the residents, but do assist other areas.

It is true that there is a different assessed value and many of the local improvements are subject to added local-improvement taxes. But there still is a tremendous discrepancy, because some paid by the city and some by the residents who paid the full rate.

How would it be to "Squeeze It, Squeeze It, Squeeze It?"

Another very vital question I would like to be answered is: How can we get lines in Edmonton to smell like lilacs?

One might just as well smell at a pint of pure, cold water and I do know there is nothing wrong with my smelling.

Pathetic 'Reform'

Bill 267 does not deal with any of the major injustices to which the Indians are subjected to our natives. It totally disregards Canada's solemn obligations under the UN Charter of Human Rights. It ignores the many years of work and the many lives of the Indian people who have been sacrificed in the name of the Indian Act.

But before we can do that we have to kill this disgraceful Bill 267. If you agree, write or wire immediately, Prime Minister Mackenzie King in the House of Commons today.

Television Will Cure Opera Ills

By EDWARD LEWIN
Exclusive to the Bulletin

NEW YORK, June 26 (UP)—The man who bused the Metropolitan Opera for 15 years and pioneered in promoting American singing talents, said yesterday there's nothing wrong with opera in America that television won't cure.

Thanks to radio broadcasts, and now television, opera has its broadest horizon ever," Edward Johnson said. "People are more educated to opera now. America has the talent, and perhaps when color television is developed opera may even get out of the red financially."

The handsome, gray-haired, 60-year-old opera director was jubilant about the future of opera and music as he sailed for Europe on a career vacation.

Believing as general manager of the Met, Johnson said he had no definite plans for the future except to "help wherever in musical education."

Sailing with Johnson on the Saturna were his daughter, Mrs. George Drew, wife of the Opposition leader in the Canadian House of Commons, and her two children, Edward, 11, and Sandra, 10.

The Canadian-born opera chief, whom John McCormack once called the "best tenor in the world," said he doesn't plan writing any more articles. Publishers have sought something like "Inside the Met" from him—intimate tidbits on the great names of opera he has sung with or supervised.

"I have no desire to do anything like that," he said. "When I think I have something worth saying, I may set it down then."

He plans to stay in Europe until October.

CHICAGO, June 26 (AP)—A kidney from a dead woman has been transplanted in another woman in an operation which doctors say is the "first of its kind."

Dr. Lawler, a member of the hospital staff and senior attending surgeon at Cook County hospital, directed the operation. It was begun 10 minutes after the death of the donor of the healthy

New Invention Hailed By Medical Association

Exclusive to the Bulletin

CHICAGO, June 26 (UP)—A new "Flicker Meter" developed by two scientists is expected to save many lives by detecting heart disease cases before they become serious, it was announced today.

The device can be used by doctors in their own offices. It was developed by Dr. L. R. Kramo and Dr. A. C. Ny of the University of Illinois medical school during 10 years of research.

"Their findings were announced in 'Circulation,' official journal of the American Heart Association. A scientific exhibit on the Flicker meter will be presented at the American Medical Association's convention in San Francisco next week.

The meter consists of a "window of light" which flickers at controlled speeds. At higher speeds the light appears steady. When the speed is slowed, the flicker is noticeable.

Heart disease, the doctors said, affects the blood vessels of the eyes. Persons afflicted by heart trouble do not notice the flickering of the light until the machine is slowed much further than for normal persons.

They said that when a person with heart disease is given a nitroglycerin tablet which dilates the blood vessels, the patient sees the flicker normally. But nitroglycerin impairs the perception of normal persons.

The healthy kidney from the dead woman, in an adjoining operating room, was removed by Dr. James West, also a staff member.

Moslem-Christian Tension Growing

Sides About Evenly Divided Numerically In The Lebanon

BEYROUT, The Lebanon, June 26 (AP)—Moslem-Christian tension is growing in the Lebanon—the only Arab country with a high ratio of Christian residents.

In recent months pitched battles have taken place in the coastal region, with up to 1,000 villages armed with rifles, machine guns and tommy-guns on each side. The Lebanese Army has been called out to put down disturbances.

Nine persons were killed and about 25 wounded in a clash this Spring in the Bekaa Plain near the ruins of the famous pagan temple at Baalbek, dedicated to Baal, the sun god.

About six months ago the Lebanese army suffered nine dead and eight wounded while attempting to settle a Moslem-Christian dispute in the same area.

Further religious outbreaks are feared because of the chip-on-the-shoulder attitude of both sides. Both Moslem and Christian groups apparently have secretly acquired large quantities of arms.

The Lebanon now is in a delicate balance, with approximately half Moslems and half Christians.

POSTS RATIONED
The Lebanese constitution adopted when several decades of French rule ended during the last war—recognizes the religious split which dominates internal politics. The president of the Lebanon must be a Moslem-Christian. The prime minister is a Sunni Moslem. The president of the Chamber of Deputies is a Shi'ite Moslem. The vice-president is a Greek Orthodox. Similar divisions occur down the line to the posts.

The last Moslem-Christian fighting took place around two small villages called Aneira and Yammouneh. Aneira is a Christian village and Yammouneh is Shi'ite.

MO-VEY STRUGGLE
Disputes have been going on for more than 30 years over the use of grazing grounds. The Ottoman government, which ran this part of the world until the First World War, set up commissions to fix boundaries and stop the fighting.

Quarrels also have arisen over the division of harvest crops. Hashish, a drug similar to marijuana, has a big market in Egypt. Although its use is forbidden by law, Lebanese law also forbids its cultivation. Despite the law large amounts of hashish are grown in the Lebanon and smuggled into Egypt.

Truman Four-Point Plan Seen Anti-Red Weapon
By John L. Cutter
Exclusive to the Bulletin

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.Va., June 26 (UP)—Secretary of State Dean Acheson said today President Truman's four point program will be a powerful weapon against Communism, especially in Asia.

In an address prepared for the 42nd annual governors' conference here, he said that the plan for technical aid to backward areas is not philanthropy and warns his listeners to beware.

Luckily, he said, both Republicans and Democrats generally have accepted the plan. The few critics he added, contradict themselves in attacking the program "not in its merits, but on a narrow isolationist basis."

REFLECT INTENTION
"It is important that the debate shall reflect the intention which we, as a nation, honestly desire to serve in the point four program," Acheson said.

"The purpose is to help create a climate in the world in which we and our children will be able to live in peace and well-being. By aiding the people of underdeveloped areas to deal with their basic problems of food, health and education, we shall be strengthening their resistance against exploitation of whatever kind."

He said the program "deals with the fundamental problems of community life—health, sanitation and agriculture."

It's Tree-Sitting Time
Remember Charlie Lupica... Cleveland's drug addict who went to tree sitting mid-way of last season's American baseball league race? Charlie climbed a 16-foot perch and pulled the rope ladder up after him, all the while vowing to stay put "until the Indians have the pennant won."

Just to relate the Indians, who became the previous year, faked like a suit of old underwear. They never did repeat to the peak, being beaten off by both the Yankees and Boston's clueless-wonders, the Red Sox.

Eventually Bill Veck, then president of the Indians, 'sent' for Lupica. He was escorted to the good earth with some considerable fanfare.

Nevertheless Lupica vowed "never again." He would see the Indians, Lou Boudreau and all, in the Three-Eye league before again he'd wait on them to cop off the American league hunting.

But if 'Loop' no longer wants any part of a tree-sitting role, not so a fellow Cleveland.

Just the other day another native of the Ohio metropolis took up a perch from where the city's sky-line is an open book. And this enthusiast means to stay up there until the small-car racing season is over.

The name escapes me. Neither do I know what the pitch is... what's behind the stunt.

Still if the business of perch sitting 'until this thing or that happens' becomes the rule, several interesting 'tests' might present themselves locally.

A citizen might take over on the roof of the CPR building and give a course of light-housekeeping to the other Dewberry Mike. Or become a reality.

That shouldn't be too long. After all when a fellow wants to give you a winner why give him the brushoff?

Or that same citizen might settle for an eyrie on the McLeod building until such time as Eaks' Bob Lili smashes another guy, or the Martelli brothers win back the Eaton golf challenge trophy from Frank Willey and Doug Silverberg, Red Deer.

He doesn't think to be away from home too long in either case.

And for a soft touch how about a porch-climber vowing to stay aloft only until such time as Johnny Stott wins another city tennis crown or Vancouver's Stan Leonard again takes the Alberta Open title?

Such a player-of-climbs would rate more than a line of two ink. And he'd hardly have time to acquire half a sun-tan.

No sir, if an Edmontonian takes a vow to stay aloft for any particular cause I hope he puts himself on the spot, that the pledge to stay 'upstairs' hinges, any, on any one of the developments.

(1) Until such time as Eskimo football coach Annis Stukus comes right out and admits that 'Chick' Fenenbock failed to get a chance to shine when last season, or

(2) Until such time as 'Chick' Fenenbock broadcasts it far and wide that Annis Stukus is a "great coach" and that he, Fenenbock, is a "great player."

(3) Until Frank Currie, Flyer hockey manager, throws off the strong, silent role he assumed when he came to Edmonton three years ago.

(4) Until Al (Mr. Murder) Mills loses a raslin' 'duke' at the Cow Palace.

(5) Until John Ducey drops in at Kingsway Park to see a girls football game.

(6) Until fight promoter Jack Berry signs a card that doesn't list Joe Kallis or Benny Geary among the combatants.

(7) Until Ken Samis wins a Big Four baseball league championship with an all-Canadian roster.

(8) Until the Western Canada Hockey league sheds its 'old man's home' reputation.

Take a shot at one of these, Lupica. Then we'll know you're on old pro at the business of perch perambulating.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Button-Holing Easier
Now on Sheer Fabrics

By Bea Thrifty

Mr. Bluebird brings good news to the gal who sews today.

He chirrups a merry song about a new sewing machine attachment . . . namely an improved button-holer.

Much raved about this new feature a "stripper foot" which makes it a far easier task indeed for the home seamstress who wishes to work buttonholes in sheer materials.

"Foot" holds fabric firmly under the attachment to prevent snagging and creeping up of material. You may make great big buttonholes or teeny-weeny buttonholes . . . the key-hole or slot-type buttonholes . . . and it sets locally at a nice plump price of $11.75.

Yesterday's wash-day was really a blue Monday for me . . . or I should say a lavender Monday.

Several tragedies took place while I was bending over the hot old washing machine.

It shall place my bracelet on your sturdy shoulders . . . and tell you my sad tale of woe.

First major incident concerns chewing gum.

Bad old husband had tucked gum for a little while he'd met at the grocery store. Polite little widget in turn offered hand a stick to husband. He said a proper thank you and tucked gum away in shirt.

Bad old wife neglected to check pockets before putting in wash. Groanmunch . . . ever had melted gum on your wash tub?

The old adage "Necessity is the mother of invention" proved true once more. I nipped up to the frig, took out an ice cube, hardened the offending gum and finally removed it from the shirt pocket . . . and alive.

I tried to remain calm . . . cool . . . pleasantly discomposed . . . but in a few moments I suffered another tragedy.

I tossed a would-be "guaranteed to wash" dress into a tub of sudsy hot water . . . it was a red and white checked dress . . . and alive.

A favorite blue shantung frock went into the pot too.

All seemed well.

In a few moments I lifted lid of machine to take fast peek at frocks . . . and lo . . . I moaned in agony . . . positive agony I tell you.

Red and white checked dress was still red and white . . . but blue shantung was a new shade of violent lavender.

So there's my sad tale of woe . . . the story of my "Lavender Monday."

I feel better now that I've released my sorrow and sadness . . . and I promise to be cheerful and gay as a lark tomorrow.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Wife Advised Be Patient
With Philandering Mate

DEAR MISS DIX: My husband is 29 years old. Last summer a 37-year old girl went to work for him and they fell in love with each other.

He himself admits that it is probably infatuation on his part. Strangely enough, the girl's mother does all she can to encourage the affair. Asks him to her house all the time. Cooks up good things for him to eat. Even went so far as to tell him that he would like to see separation papers he could stay at her house all he wanted to.

My friends think I am crazy not to leave my husband, but I love him more than anything in the world. I realize he has done wrong, but I don't think it is altogether his fault. He has a long time to live. I am sure through this affair he will love me more than ever after it is over?

ANSWER: DEAR MISS DIX: You are meeting a dangerous situation with courage and wisdom and if you will just stand to your guns you will win out. Nine women out of ten lose their husbands under similar circumstances.

HOLDS TRUMP CARD

The wife always has one trump card in her hand. That is her marriage certificate. Her husband can't divorce her as long as she believes herself, and the other woman can't marry him unless he does. That fact alone should make even a devil's advocate a long time before she goes to the divorce court and so hands her husband over to her rival.

There are two good reasons for a wife's sticking to her guns. First, she has no money. If she leaves her husband instead of throwing him overboard as he deserves. The chief one is that she does not secure her happiness by divorcing him if it loves him.

The divorcee is sure to find the heart in her heart, not fill the lonely places in her life. An unhappy woman has a little of the society that she is entirely separated from him.

'Little Men's' Well Meets With Success

Successful Drilling Test At Leduc's Borys' No. 1

Success has been met by one of the latest of Edmonton's fast-growing community of "little men's oil companies."

Miller Pyres and Roberts Oil Company announced yesterday a successful drilling test at Borys' No. 1 in the Leduc field. A stand of 1,200 feet of oil was obtained in the well which is located in the northwest sector of the Leduc field on NW 19, T 50, R 36, W 4 on the Andy Hwy.

Completion operations started yesterday when casing was run. It is believed the well will be put on production Wednesday or Thursday.

ONE OF CHIEF BACKERS

One of the chief backers of the new company is Herb Miller, of the Calmar West Oil Company, the original "little man's" oil company. Others are young Dave Pyres, 21-year-old service station operator, and Tom Roberts, superintendent of Wakefield Drilling Company.

On completion of their present well, the company will move their rig to apud in on Sec. 19, T 48, R 36, W 4, in the southeast sector of the field. The new site is three quarters of a mile from Leduc Calmar number two which kicked in last week.

Scotish Housewife Raps Trouble-Making Trends

"Baby-sitter" and "rumpus room" are two phrases in the Canadian language which spell trouble for the coming generation.

This warning was voiced in a lecture on marriage preparation given last night in St. Mary's high school by Mrs. H. J. Paul, young Edmonton housewife.

The phrases are unknown in Britain, Mrs. Paul, recently from Scotland, said.

They are the direct result of the alarming tendency of modern parents to neglect their duties to their children, she said.

PUT THEM AWAY

"Parents are forever trying to get away from their children," she said. "They get baby-sitters, when they are at home, they put them away in the rumpus room."

Speaking on "the ideal husband and ideal wife," she stressed the need for "intellectual equality and compatibility" as possibly the most important factors in a successful marriage.

"A gal can sit and chatter over the phone for an hour with one of her friends," she said. "Can she do the same thing with her fiancé?" If not, what have they of living happily together?

ENJOY OTHER'S COMPANY

Parents who enjoy one another's company have no need to try and get away from one another and from their children, she said.

Mrs. Paul described Canadian married couples as "club mad" and expressed surprise and alarm at their habit of having separate social activities and interests.

The course is sponsored by the Social Action Services organization of the Roman Catholic diocese.

The lecture was the second of the present series. Eight more will be given at 8 p.m. on successive Mondays at 1125-130 Avenue with doctors, psychologists, clergymen and other experts taking part.

Jail Sentence Is Cut To Fine

An estranged husband, Frederick Tew, Harnett, Alta., had his sentence of four months imprisonment on a charge of contributing to Juvenile delinquency reduced to fine of $150 in Supreme court today.

Tew was given the jail term when he pleaded guilty before former police magistrate Miller. Dec. 9 to the delinquency charge.

Mr. Justice C. C. McLaughlin ordered the fine instead of the jail term after Tew's counsel, Neil Farnace, said the accused was sending money each month to help support his wife and children.

He said Tew had been separated from his wife for several months when the alleged offence took place.

Blinking Doesn't Pay

PORT WORTH, TEX.—UPI.—J. C. Haskin blinked his eyes while driving down the street and next thing he knew he was in an ambulance. He hit a street roller and before he could get out of his car a subway truck had piled into the rear of it.

Bucket Brigade Days Revived At Lake Fire

City firemen who answered a call to South Cooking Lake Monday morning found themselves forced back to the "bucket brigade" days.

Modern pump truck from No. 20 their truck down to the lake it hauled proved useless without a pump to draw water from the lake on the shore, and there were no wells to fill their 100-gallon tank.

While one fireman manned the hose, the other four brought water in buckets from the lake and near-by wells, filling their big tank about 20 times.

Another source of water failed them when they found the fire truck too heavy to take out onto the almost jacked at the lake.

The cottage, one of the largest in the lake and all contents were completely destroyed.

LONESOME WIFE RINGS FIRE ALARM

An Edmonton woman who turned in a false alarm early today told police she only wanted to wake up two of her friends.

Her call sent two pumps and a ladder truck speeding to a University Avenue address at 1:30 a.m. The woman, who appeared voluntarily at police court this morning, has been charged with public mischief, but her case was adjourned until the afternoon for a mental examination.

She told police she turned in the alarm "on the spur of the moment" while sitting around the house, tired and wishing she had some company.

She said she was thinking about her husband at Whitehorse and concluded it was not fair for her to be alone when her friends were together. So she phoned in the alarm of fire at their address, she said.

She immediately realized the seriousness of her action, she told firemen, and apologized for the trouble she caused.

Accused Admits Second Offence

Elderly James Wilson freely admitted being guilty of a different charge when he appeared in police court today.

"I beg your pardon sir," he asked Magistrate S. G. Main. "What was I charged with?"

"Illegal possession of liquor," replied His Worship.

"Well, I was intoxicated," said Wilson, in a surprised tone. "I don't know about this illegal possession of liquor."

He got the minimum fine, $20, the same as levied for intoxication.

Pleads Guilty Of False Pretences

Michael H. Feist appeared in police court today on two false pretences charges.

Feist pleaded guilty to charges of obtaining by false pretences goods from Henry Bika (Western) store and $10 from an Edmonton woman.

Assistant Prosecutor Guy Reardon asked Feist be remanded for sentence in June 28.

Indians' Friends Protest Haste In Pushing Bill

Protest against an attempt to generation," she said, "but not rush passage of a new Indian Act in Ottawa was made today by the Edmonton Committee of Friends of the Indians."

The telegram, addressed to Hon. W. S. Harris, minister of citizenship and immigration, pointed out the necessity of adequate time for chiefs and councillors to study the new act, and urged postponement of further readings in the House until fall.

No copy of the new legislation has been received in Edmonton, but the new act appears to be almost identical with the act passed 29 years ago, said Mrs. Nina Rowan, secretary of the committee.

Two essentials

She pointed out that no provision is apparently made for old age pensions and an Indian claims commission, both regarded as essential by authorities.

The Indians could be lifted out of their present condition in one

According to evidence, Garret's car was in collision with another auto on Stevens Hill near 99 street, about 12:30 a.m. Sunday. Charge of illegal possession of liquor against Garret will be heard this afternoon.

Missing persons are Dmetri Barbenko, last heard of from Edmonton in 1930, and Wm. Hyslop, believed to have lived at Stony Plain until August 1949.

Hyslop emigrated to this country from Waukegan, Ill., in 1928. He is being sought by his brother-in-law, Anton Bauer.

New Strike For Edmonton Area

By C. M. Myers
Bulletin Oil Editor

Another small Cretaceous oil discovery has been made in the Edmonton area in northern Alberta, Trend Royale Bolique Lake No. 1, which is 70 miles north and ten miles west of Edmonton has been testing Lower Cretaceous oil at the rate of 15 barrels an hour with no sign of water.

Bolique Lake is ten miles north of Edmonton Imperial gas discovery Farvie No. 1.

The drilling rate of 15 barrels an hour was not taken to be indicative of potential production. The well had perforated from 2,800 to 2,807 feet in a seven foot section above the water line which was found at 2,815 feet.

DENSE BREAK

There was a dense break immediately above the seven foot section 2,790 to 2,807 feet above the brook there was an eight foot section of very dense sand.

For practical purposes, the Bolique Lake showed prospects of becoming a small commercial producer.

Other sand fields in the north central part of Alberta are Whitecourt, The Gilbert Pool at Leduc, and the 12 miles north of Edmonton, and Joseph Lake, 35 miles east of Leduc. The rest of the producing area is at Gilbert. All are in the Lower Cretaceous except Joseph Lake which is in the upper Cretaceous.

British Empire also found oil on Tuesday. The No. 2 well at the H. J. 15 minutes test 5,102 to 5,200 feet, gas creased the surface during the test. There had been a 300 foot rise of oil at 5,100 to 5,200 feet and a 100 foot rise at 5,145 to 5,190 feet.

TAPPED D-2

The No. 3 has topped the D-2 well at 5,117 feet. The No. 2 is a pumper, the No. 1 is a flowing well. The No. 3 is expected to complete as a flowing well.

The British Empire wells are two and a half miles north of the Gulf Stettler pool.

KEEP EYE ON DOLLAR

"I do not for a moment underestimate the importance to Canada of our overseas markets," he said, "I hope their efforts, buttressed by legislation from this part of the Atlantic, will result in a very substantial volume of trade being sent to Canada."

BEEN SHAPING UP

Imperial Libya, four miles south-east of the Normandville discovery appears to be shaping up as the Imperial's fourth abandonment in the area. Drilling at 7,141 feet, the well was almost 400 feet below the Normandville producing depth. Other failures are Magdore, Kathleen, and Tanager.

Supreme Court

First Preferred

James Aulry, charged with bookkeeping, elected supreme court clerk, while appearing in police court today.

He was alleged to have stolen $1,117 from the house of Mrs. N. Fenik, 1003-108, stolen, broken into last night.

Stockyard Staff

Away On Picnic

Edmonton stockyard will be a quiet spot on Saturday. Employees and their families will spend the day at Elk Island on a picnic, according to reports and justifying.

Edmonton Livestock Exchange Association is chartering buses for the employees' outing.

Prudential Establishing

Purely Canadian Set-Up

Canadians in all parts of the Dominion will benefit by establishment in Toronto next September of a purely Canadian head office of Prudential Insurance Co. of America.

Two and one half acres of floor space in the new Canadian headquarters will be occupied by seven floors of the bank of Nova Scotia building in Toronto and will have a staff of 600-800 per cent of whom will be Canadian, Mr. Green said.

BROAD SCOPE

During the summer months some 375 Canadians are being trained near company head offices in New York.

"We consider Alberta a very good place to train," said Mr. Green.

"Travelling with Mr. Green on his visit to western agencies is A. Gordon Nairn, recently appointed director of Dominion agencies for Alberta."

The new Toronto office will have Prudential.

Stalin Rule Gets Support

MOSCOW, June 20.—(AP)—The Supreme Soviet (parliament) of the USSR, last night unanimously instructed Prime Minister Stalin's government to continue its policy. At the same time, the legislative body re-elected Joseph Stalin as chairman of the presidium of the Supreme Soviet (equivalent to president of the Soviet Union) and A. F. Gorkin, secretary.

The Gorkin has legislative powers under the new constitution when the full Supreme Soviet itself is not in session.

SUPPORT RESOLUTIONS
The Supreme Soviet voted unanimously to support the resolutions adopted by the "world peace parliament congress" at Stockholm in March.

These resolutions demand the prohibition of atomic weapons, "strict international control" in carrying out this prohibition, and branding as war criminals officials of the first government to use atomic weapons against another country.

Further, the Supreme Soviet declared itself ready to co-operate with legislative bodies in other countries to achieve these aims.

Nationalists Say Flyers Hit Ships
TAMPEL, Finland, June 20.—(AP)—The Finnish Nationalists air force announced its planes set two Communist steamers afire and left a shipwreck in a stormy sea.

Further, the Supreme Soviet declared itself ready to co-operate with legislative bodies in other countries to achieve these aims.

Don McNeill Gets 20-Year Contract
NEW YORK, June 20.—(AP)—The American Broadcasting Company today signed Don McNeill to a 20-year contract and called it the longest continuing radio agreement ever signed with a radio personality.

McNeill's 10-minute program, "The Breakfast Club," will continue to be broadcast on the ABC radio network.

Further, the Supreme Soviet declared itself ready to co-operate with legislative bodies in other countries to achieve these aims.

House Building Spurred By Rent Control's End
OTTAWA, June 20.—(CP)—Canadians have gone on a home-building spree which has sent housing loans climbing despite a current temporary loan shortage.

A feeling that rental control is "the way out" was given by an official of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation as one explanation of the building boom which last month saw construction under the National Housing Act to an all-time high of $1,000,000.

This represented an increase of 367 per cent over the $1,650,000 reported for May, 1949. There were 2,800 loans, against 1,860 in the corresponding month a year ago.

The May peak helped drive the total loans during the first five months of 1950 to $4,335, valued at $96,447,377 and almost double the 1949 approved during the first five months of 1949. The values of the loans were almost 150 per cent greater than the $400,000 released in the 1949 period.

TIED OF WAITING
Aside from the fear that rents may rise as soon as controls are out of the way, the official said, bank-

Court's Decision On Schools Raises Hot Issue In South

By Charles Barrett

ATLANTA, Ga., June 20.—(CP)—Equal education for Negroes is a volcano on which the south slept for half a century.

Now the volcano has erupted into a $1,000,000,000 problem. That's the best available estimate of the total difference between education facilities for whites and Negroes in 17 southern and border states today—from kindergarten through college.

The figure raises a cloud for the south in the wake of Supreme Court decisions. The court ruled in Texas and Oklahoma cases, that states must provide education for Negroes equal in every way to that for white people.

If separate grade facilities are not equal, said the court, then Negroes must be admitted to white institutions.

NOT NEW IDEA
Actually, of course, that's no new idea. Southern states themselves enacted laws demanding equality back in reconstruction days after the Civil War.

The problem is that little was done about it.

Said editor Ralph McGill in the Atlanta Constitution: "We should have known that we could not solemnly pass laws and then cynically and cruelly ignore them and get away with it forever. Certainly there were vast discriminations. There still are. We are caught in the trap of our own laws."

Increasing the headaches, the south's white schools are superior to negro schools, but below the average for the U.S. The south is the region least able to pay for better education.

German Reds Are Crushed
FRANKFURT, Germany, June 20.—(AP)—Ruhre election returns today published by the Communist party with a crushing political defeat in its heaviest battling ground in West Germany.

Two Nationalist parties at the other extreme of the political range fared even worse.

At the same time, the polling of 36.9 per cent of the votes by Communist as a legitimate political force, more than any other party in Sunday's North Rhine-Westphalia state election, made meaningless the vote for socialization.

Drop Badly
The Communist party appeared to have been reduced to impotency in a stunning political defeat, at least for the time being. It may be left only the possibility of existing henceforth as a hard core of dedicated members entrusted with the task of preparing for possible revolution to gain power.

In 1947 the industrial Ruhr piled up the highest percentage of Communist votes in Western Germany, 1 per cent. Final returns from Sunday's poll from the state election office today showed the Communists had dropped to 5.8 per cent.

They failed to elect a single representative by direct vote, though they will have 12 seats in the state parliament through proportional representation.

MONTREAL, June 20.—(CP)—Transfers affecting vice-presidents of the Canadian Pacific Railway's three regions across Canada and effective July 1 were announced here yesterday by vice-president N. R. Crump.

A feeling that rental control is "the way out" was given by an official of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation as one explanation of the building boom which last month saw construction under the National Housing Act to an all-time high of $1,000,000.

This represented an increase of 367 per cent over the $1,650,000 reported for May, 1949. There were 2,800 loans, against 1,860 in the corresponding month a year ago.

The May peak helped drive the total loans during the first five months of 1950 to $4,335, valued at $96,447,377 and almost double the 1949 approved during the first five months of 1949. The values of the loans were almost 150 per cent greater than the $400,000 released in the 1949 period.

Aside from the fear that rents may rise as soon as controls are out of the way, the official said, bank-

Mitchell Predicts Summer Boom

Labor Expected To Be Scarce By End Of July, Says Minister

OTTAWA, June 20.—(CP)—A mid-summer employment boom across Canada was predicted in the Commons last night by Labor Minister Mitchell as opposition members pressed for federal action to stave off widespread pools of unemployment.

By the end of July, he said, the country of Canada will be undergoing its "lightest" labor situation. To back that up, he suggested that the country never has been "richer" than it is at this moment.

The debate, developing as the summer school labor department estimates, produced these proposals by party spokesmen:

A. L. Smith (PC) — Calgary West: Labor should get a higher share of industry's profit. On the other hand, it should be made clear that there should be some means of giving the worker a steady year-round income instead of prosperity at one period and starvation at another.

2. Marie Glick (CCF) — Cape Breton South: The government should go ahead with job-providing public works projects and assist municipalities to relieve unemployment.

3. C. E. Johnston (SC) — Bow River: The federal government should take some responsibility for providing more or less permanent work in the rural fields of west and east by bringing down a national coal policy.

INDIAN VOTE
The chamber, before turning to the labor estimates, adopted a bill to amend the Dominion Rivers Act and thereby by a standing committee vote of 72 to 21, an opposition proposal to extend the vote to all Indians in Canada.

Two bills broadening the investment powers of the federal insurance companies received third reading.

The House, moving towards the labor estimates, adopted a government motion to extend the summer "free" night up to now. The chamber will sit from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. with breaks for lunch and dinner—five days a week.

Mr. Mitchell gave credit for his predicted employment boom to the drive of the Canadian people. He called it "the greatest thing the 'calamity howlers' who took what he felt was a 'stupid delight' in increasing a depression."
